All participants' microphones should be muted unless speaking. Public questions and comments will be addressed during the "Public Comment" section of the agenda. Anyone from the public that would like to ask questions or comment, please use the CHAT option. Hover your cursor at the bottom of the screen and click on "Chat." Type your name and indicate that you have a comment or question. You can just simply type "comment" or "?." A board member will invite you to unmute your microphone and begin speaking. If you would prefer, you can also type your name and the actual comment or question that you have. A board member will read it out loud.

Meeting minutes are on file and available for public inspection in the school office. All Board books, including the official minutes of the Board, are stored and available for inspection at the Central Office, 30100 Olmstead, Flat Rock, MI 48134. Telephone number (734) 379-9766.

Access to Public Meetings

The Academy Board will provide necessary and reasonable auxiliary aids and services to those individuals requiring such, upon prior notice to the Academy' Superintendent.
